DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The proposed drawing correction and/or the proposed substitute sheets of drawings, filed on 12/11/2002 have been accepted.
2. The claims rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, Second Paragraph identified in the Office Action dated September 4, 2002 are hereby withdrawn.

Response to Amendment

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1, 26 and 28 (as twice amended) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims recite 'a thin film transistor disposed in correspondence with intersections of the plurality of data lines and the plurality of scanning lines' is not clear because "a thin film transistor" cannot be disposed in correspondence with intersections of the plurality of data lines and the plurality of scanning lines. Intersections of plurality of data lines and plurality of scanning lines need plurality of thin film transistors and NOT 'a thin film transistor' as recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sato in view of Fukata et al. (Fukata) (U.S. Patent No. 6,449,022).

As to amended claims 1,26 and 28: Sato does disclose that a conductive layer (16F), made from a low reflection metallic layer (Col. 6, lines 23-24) partially overlaps the data line (9) (Fig. 2A). However, Sato does not disclose that 'a thin film transistor disposed in correspondence with intersections of the plurality of data lines and plurality of scanning lines'. Fukata on the other hand, in disclosing a similar liquid crystal display device discloses that a thin film transistor (TFT) is formed at the orthogonal crossing of a gate line (8) and a data line (10) (Col. 4, lines 25-26) and Fig. 1. Fukata also discloses that the data line (10) is above a second conductive layer (Fig. 6a) and (Fig. 10c) and the data line (10) is formed on the second layer insulating film (6) and the second conductive layer (7').

As to claim 31 (new): Sato discloses that the first conductive layer (16M) and the second conductive layer (16P) are made from a high reflectance metallic layer (Col. 5, lines 10-15).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to adapt the specific structure as disclosed by Fukata to the structure of Sato to make a pixel opening ratio as large as possible while preventing incident light from a substrate surface or a reflected light from an optical system from entering the channel (Col. 2, lines 32-36) thus enhancing light shielding in high quality, high definition display devices (Col. 1, lines 7-20).

The original rejections for the remaining claims as stated in the Office Action dated September 4, 2002 are still valid.
